

What to bring on a flight helps your staff to know what passengers are allowed to carry on board.

whattobringonaflight.eu

whattobringonaflight.eu

One simple solution from Finsecpro will help:
security screeners, check-in staff, airport and airline employees, call center workers and even passengers

This free online service gives aviation industry and passengers simple answer for questions regarding baggage regulations. Service is compliant with EC 300/2008, EC185/2010, ICAO-TI and IATA-DGR

Sponsorship opportunities are available in various countries.
Also airline and airport customized services available

Finsecpro Ltd. is a Finnish company providing comprehensive security and safety training and consultancy services. Since 1994, Finsecpro Ltd. has served as an industry leader in security training for both private and public sector clients. With international clientele of consortiums, airlines, airports, seaports and authorities in Europe and overseas we have gained experience and reputation in:

- ✦ AVSEC training from screeners to national authorities
- ✦ Dangerous Goods training and packing services
- ✦ Helping nations to draw up their National Aviation Security Programmes
- ✦ Helping airlines and airports creating, updating and maintaining security programmes
- ✦ Helping airports to become EC-compliant
- ✦ Helping authorities to create and maintain audit programmes

Our promise: If it is aviation security related we have a solution for you.

Please visit us at
Stand 1344, Hall B5

Munich Trade Fair, Germany
11-12-13-14 October 2011

Does your problem have the words aviation and security on it?
We have a solution!

www.finsecpro.com